PURPLE FLAG
For a safe and vibrant night out

Cambridge has been awarded Purple Flag status, for excellent management of its night-time economy. Purple Flag celebrates the appeal of night-time culture and its contribution to the character, identity and industry of an area. There are over 70 Purple Flag towns and cities in the UK and Ireland.

As a Purple Flag city, Cambridge supports its night-time culture with services and initiatives that promote the safety and wellbeing of visitors and residents.

- Taxi Marshals
Working on designated weekends at St Andrews Street Taxi Rank, to get everyone home safely.
- Street Pastors
On Fridays and Saturday nights, the Street Pastors keep an eye out for anyone in need.
- Ask for Angela
A nationwide campaign widely adopted in Cambridge venues. Patrons can approach the bar and "ask for Angela" if they are feeling vulnerable.
- Cambridge Business Against Crime (CAMPAC)
CAMPAC's city-wide radio scheme for businesses is linked to the Police and CCTV. They also operate the Cambridge Pubwatch scheme.
- Cambridge Street Aid
Donations to Cambridge Street Aid support individuals who are experiencing, or have recently experienced, homelessness or rough sleeping.
